Incident Summary: On June 13, 2021, at approximately 6:23 pm, officers were dispatched to the area of 816 Greenfield Dr. on two (2) juveniles struck by gunfire. Upon arrival to the location, officers learned that one of the juvenile victims had been transported by family to a local area hospital to be treated for her injuries. The male juvenile was transported to a local area hospital by CFD medics. Witnesses at the scene stated that both juveniles were in front of the location riding on their bicycles when a dark-colored SUV drove by at which time its occupants began firing gunshots into the crowd striking the two (2) juvenile victims. Both victims remain in a local area hospital and are listed in stable condition, and both are expected to make a full recovery from their injuries.

UPDATE A suspect has been identified in this case. After exhaustive work by Lead FAU Detective Mautez Fulton and the support of assisting detectives in the FAU and Zone 3 Patrol Officers, Shaliq Nyshawn Bing has been charged with the shooting of Myloyalty Perry and Dawaugh Reyes. A warrant for his arrest has been filed and CPD SWAT has been notified. We are asking that Shaliq Nyshawn Bing surrender himself peacefully to CPD to answer the charges levied against him in this matter.

This incident is still under investigation, and anyone with any information is asked to contact Felony Assault Detective Mautez Fulton #1209 at (614) 645-3689 or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at (614) 461-TIPS (8477)
